

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Student Services
M Williams / A Martincak

Facilitators: Martha Williams and Angela Martincak

Group A:

1. Accept and embrace challenges. 10 votes
2. develop a better understanding of the importance of technology, and appreciation of differences and an understanding of their responsibility to invest in community 7 votes
3. seek an appreciation of life-long learning which includes embracing differences 10 votes (Blend with 3-B)

Group B:

1. Students will understand the importance of involvement in ones community through service, activities and appreciating the value of oneself and others. 12 votes
2. Students will develop a personal mission statement that will enable them to plan, develop, implement and evaluate the attainment of their goals. 11 votes
3. Students will develop an understanding of what life long learning is, and be an active participant. 3 votes (blend with 3-A)

Group C:

1. Students will accept responsibility and accountability for their actions and choices. 11 votes (Blend with 1-A)
2. Students will develop a statement of intent that expands on their educational goal/ major as well as a personal philosophy that compliments that goal. 8 votes
3. students will develop a comprehensive portfolio not restrictive to Atlas tools that can be continuously evaluated to demonstrate both intermediate and intermittent successes prior to graduation. 2 votes

Emergent Themes

- Lifelong Learning
- Diversity/Differences
- Service to Community
- Responsibility
- Accountability
- Planning/Goal Setting
- Use of Technology
- Challenges

What Next?

Take this list back to respective department.

Spend time with staff examining each outcome.

Emphasis: How can we address these outcomes by department/division/ unit?

Come back as a larger group (division)

Get buy-in of larger group

Utilize small groups to discuss strategies for implementation.

 Create plan for implementation, identifying responsibilities and methods for implementation.

Utilize small groups to discuss strategies for assessment.

 Create plan for implementation, identifying responsibilities and methods for implementation.